

Leadership Class

Write a one-page analysis and reflection essay about someone that you consider a leader in your life. The essay should consider the questions: What qualities does your leader have? What experiences have shaped his or her life? What about him or her makes you want to follow or emulate him or her?

Use the characteristics you found during the lesson assigned in Google Classroom.

Essay should be typed, 12 font and double spaced. Share with me in Google Docs.