

THE BIRTH OF THE CONSTITUTION

The Preamble

(See the Preamble)

The Preamble lists the major goals to be accomplished by the United States government under the Constitution. The importance of the Preamble and the Constitution are expressed in the first three words, "We the people . . ." The Constitution was created by the people, not by some king, dictator, or absolute ruler.

The founding fathers had six goals in mind when they set out to create the Constitution. They are:

- (1) to form a more perfect union
(set up a stronger government than they had under the Articles of Confederation)
- (2) establish justice
(improve the court system)
- (3) insure domestic tranquility
(have peace in all states)
- (4) provide for the common defense
(protect the country from enemies)
- (5) promote the general welfare
(have good living conditions)
- (6) secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity.
(have freedom for themselves and future Americans)

The Preamble expresses the hopes of the people for a good and honest government for themselves and their children.

PREAMBLE TO THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION:

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, Establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.
